

Dated: August 12, 2016

Dear friends, patrons and devotees,

We hope you all are enjoying this beautiful summer with Mata Rani's blessings.

It is that time of the year again when we at AsaMai Hindu Temple & Community Center reach out to all our supporters and well-wishers and request your support. We will be holding our twelfth annual Diwali Mela outside the Mandir on Sunday October 15, 2017 from noon to dusk (Rain Date: Sunday October 22, 2017).

Over the years our annual Diwali Mela has become a major attraction for our community with over 10,000 visitors each year. We are requesting your support in sponsoring our function by either putting an ad in our Diwali booklet, renting a booth, sponsoring a raffle or for a simple donation. All your donations are tax deductible.

AsaMai Hindu Temple & Community Center is located at 80 East Barclay Street, Hicksville, NY. Since opening our doors in 2005, we have become an integral part of the broader Hindu community settled in Long Island and New York. Not only do we have a spectacular Mandir hall, adorned by beautiful Murtis and staffed by three highly qualified Priests, our facilities, including the classroom hall and the banquet hall are also available to the community at nominal costs for all kinds of functions.

Additionally, we hold weekly dance, Hindi and music classes for kids of all ages. We also have various other public service functions, including citizenship and English classes for seniors, college essay seminars for college bound kids, networking events to help grow your businesses and free medical clinics throughout the year.

In order to meet our operating costs, we turn to our patrons for financial help and support. We hope you will make a tax deductible contribution. Schedule of rates and sponsorship application is attached.

Thank you in advance for your support.
